Company

Tailong Industrial Co., Ltd. is the biggest professional poultry processing equipment manufacturer in Taiwan for more than 30 years. We insist that our factory, sales and R&D departments should stay in Taiwan instead of moving to China in order to keep high quality of products and service. With decades of experiences in slaughter machines design and manufacture, we provide excellent solutions to meet customers need.

Our products are including stunning machine, scalding machine, defeathering machine, evisceration machine, conveyor belt, overhead conveyor, knife disinfect machine, and etc.

We have been doing business with local and overseas clients for decades, earning excellent reputation for good quality of products and after sales service.

We design many slaughterhouses for private companies and are also the first one to build slaughter house for Governmental project.

Tailong will dedicate its next 30 years to design and innovation of poultry processing equipment.
